HER FATE UNKNOWN

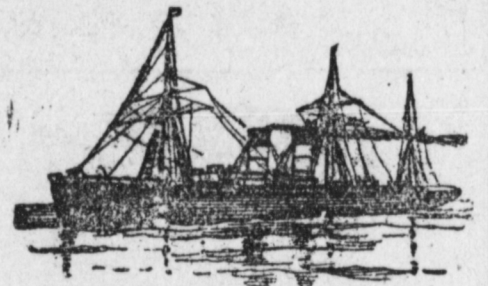

The Umbria Has Not Yet Been Sighted.

SEEN AT SEA LAST SUNDAY.

She Was Then in a Disabled Condition in the Midst of a Severe Storm and About Half-Way Between the Two Ports—Intense Anxiety Prevailing Over Her Non-Arrival.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Up to a late hour last night the hundreds of anxious inquirers at the office of the Cunard line were given no news of the missing steamer Umbria. She is now over six days behind time, and no incoming vessel reports having seen her except one. That was the steamer Galileo, from Hull, which arrived yesterday, reports that about Dec. 25 in latitude 42:52, longitude 58:05, she passed and signaled the Umbria. She exchanged signals with the Galileo, but did not show any signals for assistance.

The Galileo sighted the Umbria at 3 p. m. The Umbria was bearing northwest apparently disabled. The Galileo bore close to her, and the Umbria had three red lights showing she was unmanageable, but required no assistance. A heavy sea was running at the time, but the disabled vessel laid quite easy and comfortable, with wind northwest and blowing a gale. This would probably land the vessel somewhere along the Nova Scotia coast.

THE UMBRIA.

Fears for the safety of the missing steamer are increasing. There are other reasons given for the non-arrival of the vessel than that she may have broken her shaft. There are some very dangerous wrecks afloat in the north Atlantic route, and one or two incoming vessels came dangerously near them. To collide with one of these "derelicts" is like striking a rock, and the consequence, if the Umbria struck one of these, would be most serious.

The North German Lloyd's steamship Lahn, from Bremen and Southampton, arrived at quarantine at 1:40 this morning. Her captain, Mr. Hellmers, reports having seen nothing of the missing vessel.

The last time a Cunarder was overdue for any considerable length of time was in 1884 when the Servia was nine days late in arriving, owing to the overheating of her crank pin and brasses which necessitated repeated and long continued stoppage of the engines.

Not Reached the Nova Scotia Coast.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 30.—A rumor was in circulation here last night that the disabled steamer Umbria had reached Barrington in a sinking condition, but inquiry of the New York agent there shows that the story was false. Nothing has been seen of the steamer there. The ship has not been sighted anywhere off the Nova Scotia coast, every part of which has been communicated with from Yarmouth to Canso.

NOTICE TO THE VETERANS.

Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R. Issues Another General Order.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 30.—Commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. Weissert, has issued general order No. 4. He announces the formation of a national association of ex-army and navy chaplains, of which T. H. Haggerty, of St. Louis, is president. He also calls attention to violations of the rule prohibiting the naming of posts after living persons.

Regarding the decoration of graves of Union soldiers within the southern states, it is announced that Quartermaster General John Taylor, of Philadelphia, will receive contributions for a fund for the purchase of supplies for the decoration of such graves, the local posts in most cases being unable to provide the required means.

ROBBED A SICK MAN.

Masked Man Does a Daring Deed with the Aid of a Revolver.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Dec. 30.—Word reached here today of an outrage that occurred at Sheridan, about twenty-five miles south, Monday night. A masked man went into the sleeping room of George W. Deerfield, about midnight, placed a revolver at his head and compelled him to give up over $100 in cash.

Deerfield had been sick some time and was incapable of making any resistance. He gave an alarm, but before his wife reached the room the robber snatched the money, threw the pocketbook down and made his escape. Mr. Deerfield is postmaster, but the postoffice money was in another room and was not taken.

Captured a Girl and a Horse.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Adjutant General Williams has received a telegram from General McCook at Los Angeles, Cal., saying that Captain Meyers, Eleventh infantry, had a brush with "Kid's" band yesterday morning a few miles north of San Carlos, A. T., and captured John Long's daughter and one horse, but that the renegades escaped in the darkness. General McCook says that four detachments of troops are on the trail of "Kid" and that all possible steps are being taken for his capture.

STRANGE MURDER.

A Mother Compels Her Thirteen-Year-Old Son to Shoot Her.

BRINKLEY, Ark., Dec. 30.—One of the strangest murder cases ever brought to light in eastern Arkansas is the one in which John Thomas, a thirteen-year-old boy, is charged with the murder of his mother on Monday, in the dark country neighborhood south of this place.

The boy is apparently of sound mind and when seen acknowledged the murder and gave as his reason that she got the gun and gave it to him and compelled him to shoot her under the threat that she would shoot him if he did not do as she told him to do. Medical experts believe the boy sane and that his story is correct. He does not seem to realize the enormity of his offense. He had his trial Thursday and was remanded to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

SUFFERED FOR JUST FIVE WEEKS.

A Boy Dies of Injuries Received While Playing.

ZANESVILLE, O., Dec. 30.—Moses Louis Rosenbaum, twelve years of age, died yesterday afternoon of injuries received on Thanksgiving. He was playing on the street with a number of boys and, notwithstanding the cold weather, they had taken off their coats and were swinging them by the sleeves and hitting each other. A boy named Fred Coates whirled his coat around his head and struck Rosenbaum on the face. In the pocket was a heavy piece of iron and it cut a gash in his forehead an inch and a half long.

A few days ago a doctor was called to see him and found him suffering from a heavy cold and complaining about his head. The pain in his head grew more acute and at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon he died. The coroner has ordered an investigation.

Forged His Father's Name.

BRAZIL, Ind., Dec. 30.—A sensation was produced here yesterday by the arrest of Henry J. Tiefert, twenty-three years old, the son of John Tiefert, of Posey township and one of the wealthiest farmers in the county. Recently young Tiefert bought a horse of William Butt, of Jackson township, giving a note for $110, signed by his father. Later it was learned that Tiefert had forged his father's name. The young man sold the horse and left the country. Believing that his father had adjusted the matter, Tiefert returned home to spend the holidays. He was arrested and tried. His father swore that his signature was a forgery. Young Tiefert was taken to jail under a $500 bond.

Big Failure Announced.

TOLEDO, Dec. 30.—The failure was announced yesterday of D. N. Trowbridge, a manufacturer and dealer in barrel staves, headings, hoops, etc. He has mills in a dozen northeastern Ohio towns, and did a big business. The liabilities are placed at $80,000 and the assets at about $50,000. Mr. Trowbridge indorsed several notes amounting to $19,000, which are held by Findlay banks. These notes are now due, together with other obligations, and Mr. Trowbridge has given security to several of his creditors, while a number remain unsecured.

Two Negroes Lynched.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 30.—Wednesday night a mob of 200 citizens in the town of Luling, St. James parish, forced an entrance into the jail and took therefrom two negroes named Adam Gripton and Lewis Foxson. The mob carried the negroes to a neighboring tree and swung them up. The negroes entered the store of Abraham Silver on Christmas eve and attempted to rob the store. Samuel Basted, a clerk, attempted to eject the negroes and was shot through the heart. The murderers escaped, but were arrested and identified Wednesday.

Boy Attacked by a Bull.

WEST UNION, O., Dec. 30.—William Grooms, a farm hand employed by G. W. McKenzie, a farmer and liveryman of this place, came near meeting death by the horns of an angry bull. The bull has been confined for some time until yesterday, when he was removed to another inclosure. Hardly was the animal taken from the stable when he charged on the boy, terribly injuring him. His clothes were entirely torn from his body, and the flesh terribly lacerated. The beast was knocked down three times before it could be driven off.

Merchant Killed by Cars.

BEDFORD, Ind., Dec. 30.—Robert Stinson, a prominent merchant tailor of this city, was instantly killed by an Evansville and Richmond train at Williams, ten miles southwest of here, at 11 a. m. He had gone to Williams on business, and tried to board the returning train as it pulled out, but missed his footing and was ground to pieces by the wheels. He leaves a wife and two children.

Murder and Arson.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 30.—The station house at Brighton, five miles east of here, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The remains of Miss E. A. Ayres, the telegraph operator and railroad agent, were found burned almost to a crisp in the ruins. It is evidently a case of murder and arson. Miss Ayres was reported to have had considerable money.

Two Iron Mill Officials Arrested.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 30.—A private telegram received here announces the arrest at Baltimore of Amos Hosmer and E. W. Rouse, two of the members of the supreme sitting of the Iron Mill. They will fight extradition, and Superintendent Colbert started to Baltimore to secure counsel and bring the men to this city for trial.

Mrs. Langtry Very Low.

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Mrs. Lillie Langtry is reported to be worse, and it is feared that she will die.

FOUR LIVES GO OUT.

Sickening Accident on a Railroad Crossing.

STREET CAR CRASHED INTO.

Four People Crushed to Death and Nearly a Dozen Others Injured, Severely Quite Seriously and Can Hardly Recover—The Accident Due to Gross Carelessness.

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—Four persons were killed and twice that number were injured yesterday by a collision of a street car and a locomotive at Forty-seventh street and Stewart avenue.

The street car was crowded and was crossing the Fort Wayne railway tracks when a Fort Wayne train crashed into it so suddenly that the occupants had no time to escape. The engineer and the watchmen at the crossing, of which there were two, one on the tracks and the other in the signal tower, are under arrest pending an investigation.

Following is a list of the victims:

The dead are:

John Blaha, of Fifth and Loomis streets, drawn beneath the wheels of the locomotive and frightfully mangled. Archibald McAndrews, of Forty-seventh and Wood streets, head crushed and his body torn and cut.

John Roberts, night superintendent of the T. E. Wells Packing company. He lived at 4210 Langley avenue. Terribly mangled.

Unidentified woman, supposed to be Minnie Carron, a card with that name being found in her purse. Died of internal injuries while being conveyed to Mercy hospital.

The injured are:

John Briski, 4340 Fifth street. Head cut and body crushed; will probably recover.

Ellen Conway, nineteen years old, lives at 4445 Dearborn street. Suffering from a compound fracture of the skull and internal injuries; will probably die.

J. J. Costello, 4288 Wentworth avenue. Right arm broken and legs and head badly cut; condition very serious.

George Clark, of Forty-sixth and Sherman streets, cut about face and shoulders and internal injuries; will probably recover.

Henry Gruber, of 4447 Goodspeed street, cut about head and legs; injuries serious, but not fatal.

Michael Kohn, of 4235 Ashland avenue, shoulder dislocated, left leg broken and hurt internally; recovery doubtful.

Minnie Kudel, of 4726 Deyer street, head cut and abdomen pierced by steel splinters; recovery extremely doubtful.

William Eisler, of Forty-ninth street and Ashland avenue, left leg broken, head and arms cut and injured internally; may recover.

Patrick O'Neill, of 937 Forty-seventh street, leg broken and side crushed; recovery doubtful.

Thomas Riordan, of Forty-second and State streets, badly bruised and injured internally; will recover.

Patrick Shanley, of Forty-fifth street and Wentworth avenue, driver of the street car, collar bone broken; will recover.

Joseph Williams, of 5208 Union street, cut about head and shoulders; injuries not dangerous.

The accident happened at 6:15 o'clock when the street car traffic was at its heaviest and the cars were crowded to the doorways. As the car approached the Fort Wayne tracks an engine came backing down at the rate of about fifteen miles an hour. The occupants of the engine cab did not see the car approaching the crossing, and on account of the heavy coating of frost on the windows of the car the passengers did not see the engine bearing down upon them.

In an instant the engine struck the car and dragged it a distance of about 150 yards. At every foot of the distance some injury was added to those inflicted when the engine first struck the car.

As fast as the injured could be assisted out of the wreckage, they were removed in patrol wagons to Mercy hospital.

That the accident was due to the grossest carelessness can not be doubted. Both the crossing flagmen were in the flagman's shanty, and did not know of the wreck until it was all over.

Engineer Grosscup, after his arrest, gave all the information he could regarding the accident. As he neared the crossing he heard the fireman cry "stop," but he was not able to do so within the short distance. His engine, he thought, was running about fifteen miles an hour when the accident occurred.

John Albright, one of the crossing guards arrested, is the same watchman whose carelessness at the same point several months ago resulted in a similar accident and the deaths of two persons and the injury of others.

Iron Mine Caves In.

SALIDA, Colo., Dec. 30.—A serious cave-in occurred at the Calumet iron mine, eight miles west of here last night. Four miners were caught in the mine but were rescued after being seriously injured. Late last night nineteen men quit work, claiming the mine was unsafe and refused to return to their work until the mine had been made safe. Others are expected to quit.

Jumped Into a Well.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 30.—Theodore Dorman, a farmer of Grand Pre, sixty-two years old, became suddenly insane yesterday and rushing from his house, jumped head first down a deep well. His head was battered to a jelly on projecting stones and his body badly mangled. Death was instantaneous.

LONG ISLAND CITY'S DISASTER.

No Further Deaths and All the Injured Doing Well.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., Dec. 30.—No more deaths have resulted from Wednesday's dynamite explosion in the tunnel works in this city. The three surviving sufferers who were taken to St. John's hospital are doing nicely. The boy, Edward Delaney, who was supposed to be fatally injured, will probably recover.

The woman killed in the Hopkins restaurant, whose name was given as Mary Craden, proves to be Sadie McLean, wife of James McLean, of Sunny Side.

The funerals of Mrs. Rocco, Henry O'Brien and John Hopkins will take place this afternoon.

Peter McIntyre, foreman of the tunnel works, who was injured and whom the police placed under arrest at his boarding house, next door to the station house on Fourth street Wednesday afternoon, escaped that night and the police are unable to find him. McIntyre was thawing out cartridges when the explosion occurred. He is blamed for the disaster.

Walter C. Foster, counsel for the Inter-Island Construction company, yesterday published notices requesting all persons injured or whose property is damaged, to send their claims to him for adjustment. Assessor James D. Daven, owner of a row of wrecked flats, will claim legal indemnity, in addition to the cost of repairing the damaged buildings, as it will be impossible to rent the apartments or stores while the tunnel is being constructed.

The tunnel work is entirely suspended.

Yesterday afternoon a subscription was started in this city for the benefit of the victims of the dynamite explosion. Mayor Gleason headed the list with $100 and John Good, a prominent citizen, gave $300.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

Eight Men Hurt, Three of Them Probably Fatally.

HAZELTON, Pa., Dec. 30.—An explosion occurred at Milnesville yesterday by which eight men narrowly escaped instant death. As it is, three of them, James Jamison, Abraham Kokiso and Monroe Fritzinger, are dangerously wounded and the other five less seriously hurt. The latter are Hungarians and their names could not be learned. The men were engaged in blasting rock on a coal stripping. A charge of dynamite had been inserted in the hole and everything gotten in readiness to fire it.

Jamison, the contractor, decided to load another car before doing so and ordered the men to resume work. While they were so engaged it is supposed one of the men struck the dynamite with his pick. A terrible explosion instantly took place. How any of the men escaped instant death is a mystery. The mine car which had been placed near the spot to be loaded was smashed into splinters. Tons of rock and dirt were thrown high into the air. The workmen were struck by the flying debris and hurled in all directions.

It was first thought that all had been killed. The little town was wildly excited, and hundreds of people rushed to the scene of the accident. All the injured were carried to the surface and their wounds dressed by physicians who had been summoned. Fritzinger is terribly cut about the body and head and can not live. Kokiso sustained a fractured skull, and his face is terribly battered. Johnson is badly cut about the head and shoulders. The other men sustained cuts and bruises, but their injuries are not considered dangerous.

BLAINE'S CONDITION.

He is Much Better but Still a Very Sick Man.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—"As compared with previous mornings the one just passed was the best Mr. Blaine has had since he was ill. Tonight he is as well as he was last night." The foregoing statement was made by Dr. Johnston at 9 o'clock last night just after he had returned from a visit to Mr. Blaine.

A call at the Blaine residence later in the evening brought forth the statement that Mr. Blaine was much better.

A gentleman who has access to Mr. Blaine's room said yesterday that the impression Mr. Blaine made upon him was about the same as that made upon Mr. J. H. Manley, of Maine, who saw Mr. Blaine Wednesday, viz.: "That Mr. Blaine is slowly improving, but that he is still very ill."

The impression that now prevails among those who have actual knowledge of Mr. Blaine's condition is to the effect that while he is a very sick man he is in no immediate danger of death. No one is bold enough, however, to assert that Mr. Blaine will ever again be a well man. All that medical skill, attention and wealth can do to prolong his days are unsparingly used.

DRUNKEN MAN'S FATE.

He Loses Both Feet and Probably His Life.

ZANESVILLE, O., Dec. 30.—Last Saturday morning a man named Grant, who lives near Eagleport, was in McConnellsville, and, after imbibing pretty freely of liquor, started for home some time in the afternoon. About dusk neighbors found him in an unconscious state from the cold and without his boots. He was carried to a neighboring dwelling and a doctor summoned, who, after working with him some time, said he believed amputation of both feet was necessary, which operation was performed yesterday afternoon.

The doctor entertains great fears of not being able to save him, as his condition is serious. His boots were found about two miles from the spot where he was picked up, showing conclusively that the unfortunate man must have become dazed and wandered around in a circle.

ANARCHISTS' WORK.

Reign of Terror Commenced in Paris.

PUBLIC BUILDING BLOWN UP.

An Attempt Made on the Life of the Prefecture of Police—No Loss of Life, but the Building Badly Shattered—Defiant Utterances by Leading Anarchists.

PARIS, Dec. 30.—An explosion at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning in the hall leading to the suite of offices between the ground floor and the first story of the prefecture of police has caused a sensation. The explosion caused no fatality, but windows were smashed and woodwork damaged, and a portion of the ceiling brought down.

It was at first thought that the explosion was caused by gas, but upon an investigation of the premises by experts it has led to the discovery that the explosion was not caused by gas. The experts declare that the affair was undoubtedly the work of anarchists who had placed in the entresol a bomb heavily charged with chlorate powder.

The result of the investigation has caused considerable excitement in official circles, where it is believed that the anarchists, taking advantage of the confusion attendant upon the revelations of the Panama scandal, have started to inaugurate a reign of terror similar to that which prevailed when Ravachol and his colleagues caused the explosions here, when many of the wealthy residents of the city hastily packed their household effects and took refuge in the country. The best detectives in Paris have been detailed on the case and arrests of anarchists, whether the real culprit or not, are certain to follow.

The police think that the explosion had something to do with the recent extradition and approaching trial of Francois, the anarchist accused of connection with the Cafe Very explosion.

An anarchist is reported as saying: "Ah, you thought we were crushed, but we have enough dynamite left to blow up all the capitalists. The police have been running after Francois as if he was the only man capable of setting light to a bomb, but you will find out differently. We will show the bourgeoisie that if we remain quiet for a certain length of time we are not disarmed."

"So long as human beings die from hunger, besides those who die from indigestion, the starving ones will avenge themselves by every means in their power."

The Anarchist society, known as the V. D. R., or "Vengeurs de Ravachol," has been holding several meetings of late, since Francois was brought over from London, and it is supposed his case is occupying their attention.

Francois is said to be as defiant in the French prison as he was in London. He has been followed here by his alleged wife, a pretty woman, already under police surveillance, and said to be as devoted to the anarchist cause as Francois himself.

The authorities are satisfied that Francois has been the leading spirit of the anarchists since the execution of Ravachol, and no effort will be spared to bring him to the guillotine.

An Italian anarchist, passing through Paris, is reported as saying that the anarchists would not attack private houses, "since it is rarely the victim aimed at that is touched, and innocent victims are the consequence. We will attack public offices to destroy the records and terrify the instruments of bourgeois rule, and the banks to destroy capital, and in that way we will strike a blow at the bourgeoisie society of today, from which it will find it difficult to recover."

UNION LIFE IN TROUBLE.

At Least That is the Claim Made by Half a Dozen Directors.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—A committee of six directors of the Union Life Insurance company have, through their counsel, requested the state insurance department to bring suit for the appointment of a receiver for the company.

The committee in their complaint declare that the funds of the company have disappeared, and in some cases have been misused. They also charge that the company has been grossly mismanaged and that it is insolvent. They lay the blame for the present condition of affairs upon President Louis P. Levy.

The missing funds are said to aggregate between $15,000 and $20,000. It is charged that the books are not properly kept, and the affairs of the company are in a bad condition.

Late in the afternoon William Abbott, secretary of the company, issued a reply to the charges, in which he claims that they were instigated by former directors of the company who were disappointed at not being re-elected, and are now taking revenge by publishing untruthful reports intended to injure the company. He declares that there has been no misuse of the funds of the company and no use of funds which have not been regularly approved by the board of directors.

Milwaukee Fire Accounted For.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 30.—Henry C. Payne, vice president and manager of the Milwaukee Street Railway company, has made a written statement, based on the testimony of employees, in which he admits that the fire in the company's barns Wednesday, was not incendiary. Since the cold weather set in, the employees at night have been running the cars into the barn, without withdrawing the fires from the heaters. The origin of the fire is now accounted for in this way.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.
For Kentucky, generally fair, except local rains in extreme west portions; southeast winds; warmer.

The news comes from Washington City that any attempt on the part of retiring Republican postmasters to have a Democratic friend appointed to fill the office will not be countenanced by the department. The reason assigned is a very good one. Such appointments would not be apt to please the Democratic patrons of the office.

COLONEL O. O. STEALEY, who was in Maysville yesterday, says that in traveling from Washington City to Flemingsburg by rail it takes a person almost as long to reach the latter point from Maysville as it does to make the trip from Washington to Maysville, all due to the fact that the L. and N. and C. and O. do not arrange their schedules so as to have trains connect at this point. The Colonel reached Maysville early one morning this week, from Washington, and had to wait eight hours for a train to Flemingsburg. Yesterday he came down from Flemingsburg on his way home, reaching Maysville about 10:30 a. m. just after the C. and O.'s Washington Express passed East. He was compelled to wait here until about 8:30 last night before he could get a train. It is hardly necessary to add that Colonel Stealey was not at all pleased with such an arrangement, but he spent the time very pleasantly in this city.

DANGER IN THE DIGESTION.

Colonel John A. Cockerill Writes a Temperance Lecture.

The peril of taking whisky inwardly as an aid to digestion is becoming more apparent every day.

A deplorable illustration is furnished by what the medical fraternity designate as "the Cincinnati case." The subject was a good man, as Cincinnati men go, and, although he did not like the stuff, he was compelled to drink more or less red and rebellious whisky each day to keep his digestive apparatus up to the mark. Whisky was so distasteful to this gentleman that he never touched a drop of it without making a "wry" face---except, of course, when it was Bourbon.

One evening, while walking to his home in the suburbs---he had no business manager to haul him in a cab---he grew contemplative and leaned against a friendly lamppost to think. His digestive organs had been especially remiss in the matter of performing their functions that day, and his circulation was sluggish. Leaning against the lamppost he grew chilly, and buttoning his ample ulster about him he also included---O fatal error!--the lamppost within its folds. When at length he essayed to resume his journey homeward the lamppost held him fast, and believing that he was being "held up" by highwaymen for the purpose of robbery, if not actual murder, he aroused the slumbering suburbs with his cries for help. When a policeman ran to his assistance, saw his strange dilemma and released him by unbuttoning his ulster, he still maintained that he had been "held up" by a tall man with muscles like iron and a terrible eye that gleamed like a locomotive headlight. He also threatened, as the officer helped him home, to have that functionary removed from the force for not apprehending this bold highwayman.

We refer to "the Cincinnati case" simply as a warning to the esteemed Elder Shepard, of this city, whose digestive organs are giving him much trouble and may, if he does not change his medicine, convert him into "his own worst enemy."---New York Advertiser.

Mr. Alexander Withdraws.
Sheriff Alexander authorizes the BULLETIN to announce that he has withdrawn from the race for City Marshal, and is no longer a candidate.

Mr. Alexander and Mr. Thomas Best recently purchased Messrs. Yancey and Gault's interest in the livery stable of Yancey, Alexander & Gault, and will conduct the business hereafter, at the old stand on East Second street. Mr. Alexander withdraws from the Marshalship contest in order to devote his time to the business of the new firm.

TORNADO policies---W. R. Warder, agt.

The C. and O.'s depot at Thurmond, near Charleston, W. Va., was destroyed by fire, together with two car-loads of freight.

Nothing has been heard yet from M. E. Strauss. Yesterday was the day he was to deposit $6,000 in the Bank of Maysville, but he didn't show up, nor did the cash arrive. Dr. Strode went to Cincinnati to-day to consult Chief of Police Diestch. He thinks he will find Strauss' picture in the Rogue's Gallery.

ADVERTISEMENTS, to receive the proper attention typographically, should be handed in the afternoon before the day of publication. In the rush of the morning hours we find it impossible to devote the time to them we desire. Those advertisers who are late coming in cannot expect to be as well served as those who are early.

WILLIAM I. JONES and Nannie Newman, who were married a few days ago at the County Clerk's office, represented that they were each twenty-one years old. They hailed from Richmond, and a dispatch from there says the bride is only sixteen. She refused to allow her intended husband to ask her parents' consent.

THE copy of the Age sent the BULLETIN by Mr. W. W. McIlvain, of Melbourne Australia, is devoted principally to a description of the Flemington carnival---the great racing event of the year at Melbourne. The Age places the attendance at 65,000 on the day in question. The paper had an illustration showing the relative positions of the leading horses at various points in the race.

HARRY MAGREEVY died at Covington yesterday from the effects of a wound inflicted some days ago by John S. Harrison. The Commonwealth says the cutting was done in self-defense. Harrison has been giving his relatives a great deal of trouble of late by his reckless conduct. He was in Maysville yesterday, and left in the evening on the westbound C. and O. train.

At the annual election of Favorite Lodge No. 581, F. and A. M., held at Fairview, Fleming County, the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year:
W. M.---J. B. A. Cord.
S. W.---H. B. Cord.
J. W.---L. T. McCarty.
Treasurer---D. E. Clark.
Secretary---R. S. Weaver.
S. and T.---Luther Ricketts.

G. A. Adams and G. L. Davis were appointed Senior and Junior Deacon respectively. This lodge is well located and in a flourishing condition, and only needs a good hall, which the members are anxious to build in the near future. The citizens of Fairview are willing to co-operate and build jointly a two-story hall which will be an ornament to the village as well as a very useful building for the community at large.

Ice Gorged.

The ice was very heavy in the river yesterday, and gorged twice at the narrows in the West End, but the gorges didn't hold very long.

Last night about nine o'clock it closed above here either at Brook's Bar or Manchester Island, and the river to-day is clear at this point.

Sweet Potato Puff.

Boil and mash sweet potatoes. To four cupfuls of this add three eggs beaten light, a cupful of milk, two table-spoonfuls of butter and a little salt. Beat all together vigorously, turn into a pudding dish and bake.

HERE is always in the distance Hope that ever beckons on, Still another year to greet us When the present year is gone.

But the sorrows that have touched us In the watches of the past, Can not wait us in the future Where the shadows overcast.

So let's enter on the pathway Of the newly christened year Reckon'g nothing of its sadness, Dreaming only of its cheer.

Let us wish for one another Lives of brightness and success, That the King of all the kingdoms Will remember us to bless.

LEADS TO KNOWLEDGE, and knowledge is power in all business as in other walks of life. The opportunity is here, and all you have to do is to grasp it, and it is yours. No doubt you have learned that The Old Reliable Red Corner Building is to be remodeled after the Holidays, and there is but one thing to do, and that is to get the large stock of CLOTHING out of the building before the workmen commence. This is no scheme to gull the consumer, but an actual fact, which has been put off as long as possible, and now they MUST go, at YOUR price, not ours. Our immense stock will be thrown on the market Saturday morning, and we will continue the cut prices until everything is closed out, from a Collar Button to the finest Suit or Overcoat sold in the city. Do not listen to anyone, but come and see for yourself.

THE WHITE-GIBSON NUPTIALS.

The Jeffersonian, of Plattsburg, Mo., Gives Details of a Wedding at That Place.

Brief mention has been made of the marriage of Dr. Russell A. White, formerly of this city, and Miss Lottie Gibson at Plattsburg, Mo., a few days ago. The Jeffersonian, of that city, in its account of the nuptials says: "The rooms of the beautiful home of the bride were darkened, and lamps furnished the only light. The parlors were decorated appropriately. A back ground of rare flowering and foliage plants, with clinging clematis and climbing smilax, in the delicate light produced an enchanting effect. "Professor Legg, of Kansas City, presided at the piano, and when trained fingers and artistic touch poured fourth the wedding march, all was hushed. The little bridesmaids, Misses Beulah Scarce and Lee Lyons, carrying baskets of flowers, passed down the center of the parlors and took their places right and left, in front of the vista of flowers. The happy couple followed, and taking places between the little maids, the solemn words which united them were pronounced by Elder J. W. Perkins. "After a shower of congratulations and the introduction of the groom to the friends who were present, the dining room was opened and refreshments were elegantly served. "The groom, Dr. Russell A. White, is a young and promising physician of Cincinnati, O., having recently located there. He is an entire stranger to us, but our impressions of him are very favorable. Frank, intelligent and cordial, he draws friend to him. "Miss Lottie, as she is familiarly called at her home in Plattsburg, was one of our favorite and most favored girls. A fine musician, an entertaining conversationalist, a magnificent lady. She had a host of friends. Having studied much, she is a fine scholar; traveled much, her knowledge is broad; having entertained much, she is at home in the social world—a polished lady. "The bride was dressed in white crystal silk, trimmed with lace. The groom in conventional black. The presents were numerous and costly."

RIVER NEWS.

The Hudson is laid up at Gallipolis. The Andes is hugging the wharfeboat at Parkersburg, and the Lizzie Bay below her. The Keystone State is at Steubenville, the Scotia at Pittsburg and the Iron Queen at Cincinnati. The Telegraph is at Ashland. Bay Brothers' new propeller, the Georgia, is now winning the laurels for fast running. Last week the Telegraph on her up trip, tried her speed with the Georgia, but the little propeller ran away from the large side-wheeler. The Georgia is said to be the fastest little boat on the upper Ohio, being very much faster than the old Volunteer that was sold to some southern parties.—Irononian.

The Week of Prayer.

Next week will be observed as week of prayer in this city by union services, in which both Methodist, both Presbyterian, the Baptist and Christian churches will participate. On Sunday there will be no union services, but on Monday night one will be held at the First Presbyterian Church, on Tuesday night at the Baptist Church, on Wednesday night at the Central Presbyterian Church, on Thursday night at the M. E. Church, on Friday night at the Christian Church, and on Saturday night at the M. E. Church, South. Arrangements have been made for short addresses at each of these services.

Subjects: Monday, "Humiliation and Thanksgiving;" Tuesday, "The Church Universal;" Wednesday, "Nations and Their Rulers;" Thursday, "Foreign Missions;" Friday, "Home Missions;" Saturday, "Families and Schools."

REVOLUTION IN MEXICO.

Desperate Efforts Being Made to Overthrow the Government.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 30.—Last night The Times-Democrat received the following dispatch from Nuevo Laredo, Mexico:

"This has been a day of suppressed excitement and anxiety in military circles here, as there was every reason for believing that the revolutionists would make an attack on Guerrero, where a large quantity of arms and ammunition was stored. It is very hard to obtain any information from Colonel Cerena, who commands the garrison here, but it is certain that the expected attack has not yet been made.

"There have been rumors here of another engagement, however, about twenty miles south of San Miguel, between 150 revolutionists and a detachment of eighty Mexican soldiers, in which five soldiers were wounded.

"The announcement that the revolutionists, under command of General Francisco Estrada, had met and defeated 300 government troops, commanded by General Manuel Garcia, on the road leading to Guerrero, produced much excitement.

"General Estrada is the Mexican army officer who was in command of one of the divisions of the government army. He suddenly disappeared about a two weeks ago and the fact that he had identified himself with the revolutionary movement leads to the general conclusion that the attempt which has been inaugurated to overthrow the Mexican government is to be a desperate one and not easily suppressed.

"General Estrada is one of the most popular army officers in Mexico, and the mere fact that he joined the revolutionists on the Mexican territory, the entire force of the invaders, numbering at this time about 2,000 men, the indications are that the government troops along the border will see some hard service in putting down the rebellion during the next few months.

"The seven wounded soldiers who were brought into Nuevo Laredo Tuesday received their injuries in the battle opposite San Ignacio."

Our Troops Guarding the Border.

GALVESTON, Dec. 30.—A News special from Laredo, Tex., says: Seven of the wounded Mexican soldiers who were in the last battle, opposite San Ignacio and crossed to the American side, were brought into New Laredo Tuesday night. One thousand troops of the United States are now in the field along the river border, between Laredo and Brownsville.

MONTE CARLO'S DEATH ROLL.

A Young American Destroys Himself After Losing All.

LONDON, Dec. 30.—A dispatch from Monte Carlo says that an unknown American, twenty-three years of age, lost £3,500 belonging to his mother at the gambling table. When the last coin was gone he walked quickly out and eighteen miles from Nice threw himself in front of an approaching train and was killed. Another unknown gambler lost all he had and blew out his brains soon after.

An Insane Wife Butcherer.

DES MOINES, Dec. 30.—Peter Sutter, a retired farmer, aged fifty-five, murdered his wife, Teresa, aged forty, yesterday, at their boarding place. He strangled her with a towel and then branded her with a hammer. The couple had been quarreling for a long time. Sutter gave himself up to the police. He is probably insane.
